Cake Royalty Comes to Town ... And Other Forthcoming Events and Dates for your Diary!

Our Committee members have been working super hard over the last few months to fill up the Club diary with exciting guest speakers, demonstrators and workshops which we hope will appeal to our members varied interests – and we are pretty pleased with how things are looking so far!

Tuesday 20th June 2017:

Buttercream Flowers Demonstration with Neetha Syam

We're really excited to be welcoming along the very talented Neetha Syam to our June meeting! Founder of 'Buttercream Petals' - a cake decorating school based in London and the Midlands - and a self-taught cake artist who specializes in floral Buttercream cakes, Neetha will be showing us how to pipe beautiful Buttercream flowers, as well as giving us tips and techniques to help us master Buttercream art. This is a fantastic opportunity to learn more about this impressive skill for all of our sugar crafting members, as I'm sure you'll agree.

Refreshments including Teas, Coffees and assorted cakes will also be available on the night as usual.

Tickets are priced at: £5 for Members and £20 for Non-members

6.30pm-8.15pm @ Mancetter Memorial Hall, CV9 1QN

Wednesday 19th July 2017:

Air Brushing Demonstration with Award Winning Cake Decorator Cassie Brown

Drum – roll please! We can't even begin to tell you how excited we are for our July meeting, as cake royalty comes to town in the form of the award-winning Cassie Brown! A superb demonstration on all things Air-Brushing – this evening should give those new to air-brushing a taster on the skill and those more proficient, as well as some handy tips from an Air-Brushing pro to really use this popular skill to take your cakes to the next level!

Refreshments including Teas, Coffees and assorted cakes will also be available on the night as usual.

Tickets are priced at: £6 for Members and £20 for Non-Members

6.30pm-8.15pm @ Mancetter Memorial Hall, CV9 1QN

Wednesday 16th August 2017

Jewellery Making Workshop with 'Beadelicious'

Our August meeting promises to be an evening designed with our craftier members in mind - and those in need of a rest from cake decorating! The lovely Louisa from 'Beadelicious', will be coming along to teach us the art of jewellery making and walk-away with your very own hand crafted Bracelet or Necklace. Refreshments including Tea, Coffee and assorted cakes also available on the night. All materials will be provided. Ticket Prices to be confirmed.

6.30pm-8.15pm @ Mancetter Memorial Hall, CV9 1QN
